NYC & Company and the Travel Trade

When planning group leisure travel or FIT packages to New York City, NYC & Company's Tourism department is your best source of information. Our team is happy to provide you with itinerary ideas; connect you with hotels, tours, attractions, restaurants and other tourism services throughout the City; and keep you apprised of the latest happenings in all five boroughs. If you are looking to arrange group travel or contract hotel rooms, please submit an RFP.

With 18 offices representing 25 countries, NYC & Company maintains an integrated five-borough approach to promoting New York City, which amplifies its branding, leverages trade relationships for enhanced promotion of the destination in-market, creates cooperative promotions to drive visitation—particularly during off-peak periods—and works in tandem with PR efforts by market to optimize messaging. If you'd like to learn more, contact a member of our team.

Welcome to the NYC Travel Training Academy

One city, five boroughs, unlimited options: This is New York City™.

By taking the following course, you'll learn about the City's diverse neighborhoods and sightseeing attractions and its shopping, dining, cultural and nightlife opportunities—all the basics you need to become an NYC Specialist and guide visitors toward finding their personal NYC experience.

The modules are simple to complete, just read through each section and answer the questions as you go. There are 6 modules and 10 questions in each module. At the end, you can check your score and go back to answer any questions you got wrong.

Don't forget to keep your details updated ("My Profile" tab) if you change agencies, email address or your name.
